

Exam Objectives:

Individuals who earn Certification in Animation-ish have demonstrated the mastery of the following content and skills:

Domain 1: Apply leadership and communication skills

- Demonstrate knowledge of project management
- Use what is known about job roles to apply collaboration and communication skills to create an animated product.

Domain 2: Demonstrate an understanding of an animation career pathway

- Identify necessary skills required for a career in animation
- Describe technologies associated with the animation industry
- Describe roles in a professional animation studio

Domain 3: Understand animated media

- Use key terminology associated with animation design
- Demonstrate knowledge of basic animation principles
- Demonstrate best practices in applying the art of storytelling to animation design

Domain 4: Understand Animation-ish software

- Identify elements of the Animation-ish interface and demonstrate knowledge of their functions
- Define the functions of commonly used tools in animation
- Organize workspace
- Demonstrate knowledge of foreground and background

Domain 5: Create animated content using Animation-ish software

- Create new projects
- Import media to use in animation
- Create animations
- Work with the transform tool to create multiple frames of animation